

Please be so kind as to join me on the Tip O'Neill BCM Eight-Bridges Tour.

But If you're going to come with me, you must be polite -- smile and wave to pedestrians, help old ladies, offer refreshments, don't block traffic gratuitously, let emergency vehicles pass, even if they're just harassing us.

And, THEN, everyone who sees us will say, "Look at those nice young boys and girls on their velocipedes," and they'll go home and dust off their old Raleighs and join us.

Which is why we're here, right?
